

CAP AND GOWN CLUB FALL 2020 NEWSLETTER

Cap and Gown has been closed since March because of the coronavirus pandemic. This is the last picture of our undergrad members before the closing. The University asked the clubs to be closed until January (at least) and has provide some financial support for all the clubs.

CAP LAUNCHES “CAP CONNECTIONS”

A new program for career mentorship for our undergrad members and young alumni.

The club has hosted 5 virtual career panels this fall on Technnology, Finance and Investing, Consulting, Health and Medicine, and Non-Profits. They are all available on podcast at capandgownclub.org/careerpanels.

WE HOPE YOU AND YOUR FAMILY ARE SAFE AND WELL.
BEST WISHES FOR THANKSGIVING AND THE HOLIDAYS.

Dear Cap Members,

We hope that you and your family continue to be safe in this unprecedented time of the coronavirus pandemic. Cap and Gown has been closed for the fall semester, and we are waiting to hear what the University decides about the spring semester. We are tightening our belts to endure the strain this pandemic is putting on our club finances, so this fall Cap newsletter is coming to you in digital format only for now and the foreseeable future.

The Cap and Gown Graduate Board met on October 21st for our fall meeting. In my twenty-two years on the board, I have never been so proud to see how our Cap community — our Officers, our Club Staff, our Graduate Board members, and our Alums — have responded to the challenges we are facing. Here are highlights from our board meeting:

- Cap Goes Virtual: Club President Karthik Ramesh, in his Undergraduate Report, described the plans for virtual recruitment of sophomores and bicker this spring. He also referenced the many virtual social events that have been organized at low cost.

- Cap Launches Career Panels: The best attended virtual events have been the Cap Career Panels organized by the triumvirate of Lisa Schmucki '74, Nina Bahadur '13, and Karthik Ramesh '21. Taking advantage of Zoom technology, alumni panelists have presented to undergraduates and young alumni in equally wide-spread locations. We are working on plans to use the recordings of these panels as part of our sophomore recruiting to highlight the value of our alumni network.
- New Board Committee on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI): Our undergraduate officers and younger graduate board members have been taking the lead to make sure that Cap, along with Princeton University, is addressing issues of systemic racism. Sean Poosson '17 and Jade Williams '19, recent club presidents and current board members, are Co-Chairs of a new Graduate Board Committee on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI). At our recent board meeting, they presented a survey the committee conducted with young alumni and current undergraduates to better understand the current climate and areas requiring attention. One area for immediate follow-up is a suggestion to conduct sensitivity training before our upcoming virtual bicker this spring. Another critical area is the subject of financial aid discussed below. We will have a special December board meeting to focus on these issues.

- Expanding Financial Aid: Under the leadership of Kasturi Shah '15, the Cap Financial Aid Committee founded in 2018, has administered Cap's first financial aid program to supplement the financial aid provided by the University for a limited number of undergraduates. In our recent board meeting, Kas presented a proposal to simplify how financial aid awards are given and a plan to create a dedicated financial aid fund to expand the amount of aid the club provides. The cornerstone of the plan will be a commitment to fund the difference between what the University calculates as the prevailing junior and senior board rate and the cost of Cap for each member on financial aid.
- Update on our Cap Staff: We closed mid-March and thanks to the contributions of Cap members and alumni, we were able to keep all staff on payroll until mid-April, and some beyond that. Our manager of 40 years, Dennis Normile, remains on payroll and has been overseeing the clubhouse, working on reopening plans with other club managers and the GICC, and in constant contact with our staff. The combination of paid work at the club, continuing health care, and unemployment benefits have assisted staff members in this difficult time. We are monitoring the situation closely including the continuation of government aid. Healthwise, the good news is that the three members of our current staff of sixteen who have had COVID are fully recovered.

Looking ahead to the next semester, President Eisgruber's recent email said that a University decision on the spring term will be made early in December. Even if more students return, it does not necessarily follow that the clubs will reopen. While Cap will be prepared to open on short notice, given the higher risk of COVID in indoor dining and social settings, the most likely scenario may see the clubs remaining closed until the fall 2021 semester. If the University funds a significant percentage of the clubs fixed operating expenses in the spring, as they did in the fall, the immediate solvency of the clubs is insured, but we will still have many challenges.

The undergraduate Cap membership consists of an introductory spring semester for sophomores followed by two full years in the club. Our Class of 2020 seniors missed their senior spring. The Class of 2021 missed their junior spring and senior fall. The Class of 2022 had only a few weeks of membership as new sophomore members before the University closed in March. In February, these juniors and seniors will need to run a virtual bicker and then elect new officers for next year.

The good news for the clubs is that in the middle of all this disruption, students are clamoring for the club experience. Our President Karthik Ramesh is also the President of the ICC (Inter-Club Council). The ICC conducted a survey of sophomores to gauge interest in the clubs in a virtual environment. Consistent with past levels of participation in club admissions, 75% of sophomore respondents expressed an interest in joining a club this spring, whether or not the process and membership will be virtual. The ICC and all of the clubs are working to make the most of the virtual club experience.

Conclusion

Many thanks to all of you, our generous alums who have contributed in good times, to fund our beautiful improvements to the clubhouse, and with exceptional generosity to the Annual Fund this past year, to help the club and staff in hard times.

The University provided a generous grant to each of the clubs this fall to fund a major portion of our expenses, and we are hopeful that will happen again this spring. We are debt free. Looking ahead, we will turn our attention to cost containment, financial aid, and building our Cap Endowment. This crisis shows us the importance of having an endowment for unexpected crises.

My best wishes to you and your families for health over the holidays as we celebrate in more limited ways, frequently missing the opportunity to be with those we love. With hope for a return to happier days in 2021.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. Fleming Jr. '69
Graduate Board Chair

News from the Club President

Dear Cap Alumni,

It is an absolute pleasure to update you all about the club's virtual community! Although the clubhouse is closed, the Cap community has thrived in the virtual environment. Members have stayed connected with each other through events, social media, and regional groups and I am confident that when the doors of 61 Prospect open again we will pick up where we left off in March.

The officers have hosted a plethora of diverse social events to engage members, including "Speed Friending" and "CapHoot Trivia." Led by Social Chair Gabby Chapman '21, we have adapted our programming to the virtual environment and utilized a range of online platforms, such as Zoom and Discord. We have exposed the new batch of juniors to many evolved fall semester traditions to ensure the continuity of these special events. This week, we held the annual 80s-theme Cap Prom, with members "promposing" to each other in creative ways. For example, one senior member recreated an entire scene from the popular sitcom Always Sunny in Philadelphia since that was their junior date's favorite show. Indeed, although our events have looked very different this year, they have been no less special to our members.

Amongst the most well-attended events have been the series of Cap alumni career panels. In this uncertain time, members have appreciated the thoughtful advice and fascinating career trajectories shared by alumni. We have been touched by your strong engagement with the nascent "Cap Connections" program and are excited for the next set of panels in the Spring semester.

As we look forward to the spring semester, we are faced with the challenge of successfully executing a virtual bicker. This year, we are leaning on Cap's numerous affinity groups to attract a diverse class of sophomores. As such, the officers are organizing the first-ever "Community Night" pre-bicker event, where members of Cap's affinity groups are given a platform to share their experiences in Cap to sophomores. Membership Chair Sabrina Evoy '21 has also drawn out a robust plan to hold a virtual bicker, including provisions to tackle Zoom fatigue and accommodate a range of time zones. I look forward to welcoming a fantastic cohort of sophomores in February!

As we near the end of this unique semester, we look forward to a restful holiday break and, hopefully, a more optimistic spring. When the situation improves, we'd love to see alumni around the club. If you're in the area, please come by to enjoy a meal or the company of your ever-growing Cap family!

Best wishes,

Karthik

The Committee for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI)

The Committee for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) was created to continue to promote racial equity and an inclusive and welcoming environment at Cap and Gown. This committee will help recognize issues faced by Black, Indigenous, and Person of Color (BIPOC), LGBTQIA+, first-generation and low income members at Cap, while engaging in conversations and promoting initiatives to support these groups. This committee will also emphasize Cap's commitment to access and diversity, regardless of race, gender, sexuality, or ability, and will offer members a voice on the board to express their needs.

Diversity is the representation of all our varied identities and differences (race, ethnicity, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, tribe, caste, socio-economic status, thinking and communication

*Jade Williams '18,
Co-Chair*

*Sean Poosson '17,

styles, etc.), collectively and as individuals.

Equity seeks to ensure fair treatment, equality of opportunity, and fairness in access to information and resources for all.

Inclusion builds a culture of belonging by actively inviting the contribution and participation of all people.

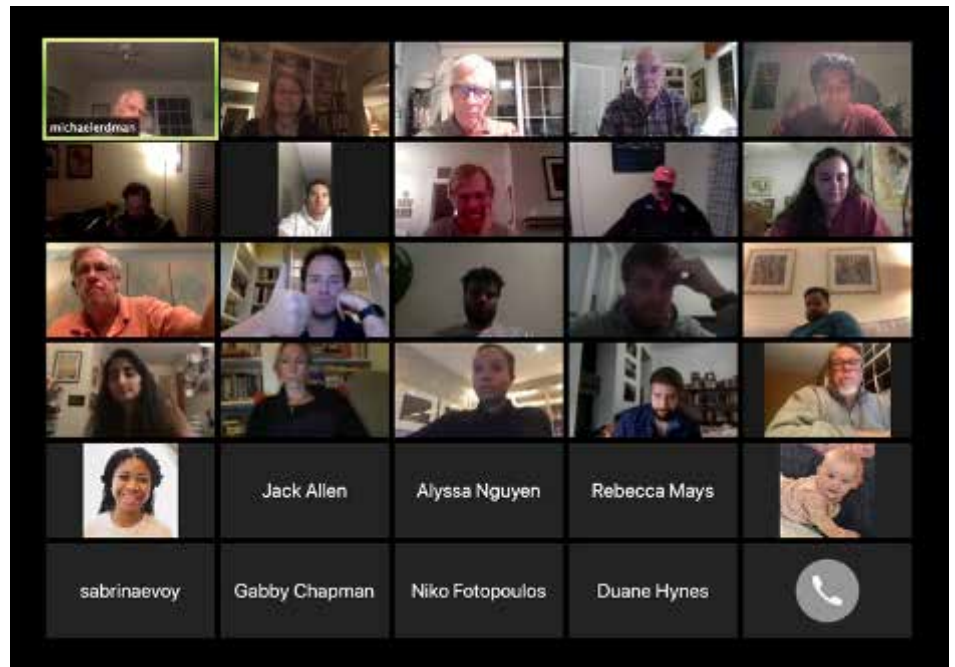

One of our main goals this semester was to send out an anonymous DEI survey to undergraduates and recent alumni to gain a more accurate and deeper understanding of issues and best practices surrounding DEI and to implement changes. We look forward to analyzing all of the thoughtful, informative, and extremely helpful responses and address any and all necessary changes to continue to improve the Cap and Gown community.

Meet the Cap and Gown Board of Trustees

The Cap and Gown Board has been more active and connected than ever. Meetings have moved to Zoom, and we had almost 100% participation for our meeting on October 21st, far exceeding our usual attendance, even with providing a conference call option for our past in-person meetings. We are all spending lots of time on Zoom, and it's great that this technology has helped during such a challenging time and can allow us to meet more frequently.

We've added a new page to our website listing all of the Cap Board Members at: capandgownclub.org/board-of-trustees

Cap Connections Career Mentoring Program

This fall, Cap launched “Cap Connections,” a new program for career mentorship for our undergrad members and young alumni. With the club closed, and all communications gone virtual, this has been a good time to launch an alumni mentoring program that we’ve talked about for some time.

Cap Connections began this fall with a series of online Career Panels hosted on Zoom. We held five panels this fall on Technology, Finance and Investing, Consulting, Healthcare and Medicine, and NonProfits.

Cap President Karthik Ramesh has reported that the career panels have been the most popular virtual events for Cap members this fall. We’re thinking of ways that we can invite sophomores to attend in the lead-up to Spring 2021 club admissions. As far as we know, Cap is unique in launching a career program that can help our undergrad members and young alums at a time when entering the job market will be more challenging, too.

We’re planning more career panels in 2021 on Government & Law, Marketing, Communications and PR, Entrepreneurship, Education, Media & Journalism, Science & Engineering. If you’d like to participate on a panel, or recommend another Cap member to participate, please contact Nina Bahadur at nina.bahadur@gmail.com.

We’re using our Cap LinkedIn group as a place where undergrad and alums can connect with each other. Our Cap Group has grown from 600 to more than 900 members in the past few months. If you’re not yet a member, please join at www.linkedin.com/groups/1851053.

Many thanks to Lisa Schmucki '74, Nina Bahadur '12, and Karthik Ramesh '21 for launching this program, and to the Cap alums who have participated in the program this fall.

Thank you to our Cap and Gown Donors!

This year has been the most challenging in Cap and Gown's history, and we are so thankful for the generosity of Cap members for supporting the expansion and upgrades to our beautiful clubhouse, and for your generosity this year, especially for the Cap staff. Since the club closed so suddenly in March, we didn't publish a spring newsletter when we thank our donors for their gifts the previous year. We are offering our thanks now to all the Cap members who donated to Cap in 2019 and in 2020 through October 31st of this year. Over 400 members have donated during that time to the Cap Annual Fund, the Cox Wing, and/or the Endowment Fund.

Thank you Cap Members for your generosity, especially at this time!

Tom Barnds '90 brings an antique cup back to the club.

Cap Silver Cup from 1899 Returns Home

Tom Barnds '90 was cruising eBay recently and found a listing for an antique silver Cap and Gown trophy cup made by Tiffany over 120 years ago. He brought it to the attention of the Cap Board and has generously purchased it and donated it to the club. Our Club Manager Dennis Normile will be creating a way to keep this treasure of memorabilia safe in the Cap Library. The inscription reads:

*Ninety-six Section
Cap and Gown Club
Princeton University
November 15, 1899*

Drink in memory of Princeton Spirit Honor and Friendship.

When we return to Cap in person again, we can do it in the spirit of two memorable Cap quotes, "Whenever I enter this club, I feel happy inside," and "Drink in memory of Princeton Spirit Honor and Friendship." Thank you, Tom. The first drink from the cup is for you!

Tom Barnds also donated these wonderful antique postcards!

We Remember Norman Carter '38

Cap and Gown has lost our oldest living member, Norman Carter '38, on January 12th of this year at the age of 103. Norm was room-mates with Cap member Bill Coors '38. They had 100% participation for the Class of 1938 for the Cox Wing. They were our two oldest living alums until Bill passed in 2018 at the age of 102.

When Norm returned to Princeton in 2018 for his 80th Reunion, he asked to meet President Jade Williams '18, who had been profiled in the Princeton Alumni Weekly. They met up at the Old Guard Luncheon. Here is the story of their meeting: <https://tinyurl.com/carter-williams-meet>
